Partnership to create new industries in the pipeline

By MOHD IZHAM Bin HASHIM

KOTA KINABALU: Young Business and Industry Leaders from SYBIL are seeking to form a partnership with Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) Institute of Biotechnology and Research to explore opportunities to create new industries in Sabah that are in line with the Government's economic development plans.

Led by its President, Ar. James Wong Kein Peng, SYBIL Food Security Taskforce Chair

SYBILIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

LEARNING & GROWTH ATTITUDE

We come to SYBIL to learn & grow together. We do not come with an attitude that we know it all, but as peers amongst other leaders and industry captains.

NON-SOLICITATION

No hard-selling products or services during events or to members. Only if asked and requested. We want to build a safe environment or learning and growth where business owners do not feel bombarded by salespeople.

POLITICALLY NEUTRAL

SYBIL remains as a politically neutral organization to partner with the government-of-the-day in solving real-world problems. It must not be used as a political tool in any way. We welcome all Sabah Young Industry Leaders from all walks of life, race, religion, culture, political views with the focus of building a better Sabah Future Economy together in 5-10-20 years to come!

CONFIDENTIALITY

Any sensitive and deep personal sharings of peoples entrepreneurship journey should be kept confidential. We want to create a safe environment of Trust and Respect.
